Wednesday, 5 March David Harrington's Listening Party

David makes a one-off appearance in town. Presenting one of his renowned Listening Parties, he and his laptop will take us on a fascinating journey into the music that has shaped his life and craft.

Friday, 7 March Robert Dessaix: Music in my Life and Work

Together, Robert Dessaix and Professor Anna Goldsworthy will explore the place of music in Dessaix's life and work, interspersed with performances by Goldsworthy of work close to Dessaix's heart and inspired by the conversation. Join us for a warm, intriguing and revealing hour of live music and discovery.

Wednesday, 12 March ANAM: A Viennese Matinee

This performance showcases some of Vienna's finest classical fruits. The talented young musicians from the Australian National Academy of Music, alongside Paavali Jumppanen on piano and Zoë Black on violin, bring to life this music as though it were written just yesterday.
